

I am extremely opposed to any changes that would weaken the New Jersey do-not-call program. It has been wonderful to come home and not be inundated with telemarketers' phone calls. The quality of my home life has improved due to the lack of interruptions. Let us keep it this way!